EYES

You can make them Strong Without Spectacles, Operation or Medicine.

If your Eyes are affected you need our Book on "Eyes," describing a harmless method by which you can strengthen the eyes and restore the vision without operation or the aid of drugs or glasses. It is in the nature of a gentle massage which stimulates the action of the blood in the eye arteries, with the result that natural sight is restored, and the eyes become painlessly and surely moulded to perfect shape. By this means near-sight, far-sight, astigmatism, and other defects are corrected and cured. You can discard your glasses and counteract headache and eye-strain by five minutes' manipulation daily in your own home.

See Nature with naked eyes—not through glass windows.

A 1s. BOOK on the "Eyes" FREE.

This book is published at 1s., but its contents are of such vital importance to all sufferers from eye defects that we have decided to give away 30,000 copies at cost. If you would like one, send your name and address with 3d. (abroad, 6 foreign) postage stamps for expenses. Address Publishers:

SUCCESS in Journalism and Story- Writing.

FAMOUS AUTHORS WHO CONTRIBUTE TO THE COURSE:

Gilbert Frankau, Stacy Aumonier,
H. De Vere Stacpoole, Elinor Mordaunt

The A.B.C. Courses (which include Free-Lance Journalism and Short-Story Writing) are conducted entirely by correspondence, but Mr. Whittingham Boothe, Director of Studies, is always willing to grant an interview and to advise would-be pupils. You may send him one of your MSS. (anything up to 5,000 words) and he will be quite candid, and he will tell you honestly what he considers are your chances of making good as a writer. Even if you do not send him a MS., ask for a copy of "Wordcraft," which gives you full particulars of the A. B. C. WRITER'S COURSE. Write to the Secretary,

ROSICRUCIAN MYSTICISM.

The AMORC is the only Rosicrucian Order having the Rosicrucian authority descending from Egypt and India through the early founders of the Order. In every civilised land the Fraternity is in operation to-day, using the ancient Latin name ANTIQUUM ARCANUM RUBEAE ROSAE ET AUREAE CRUCIS, or the abbreviated English form, Ancient and Mystical Order Rosae Crucis (AMORC).

A new book has recently been published, which is not sold, but will be loaned to every true seeker who writes in absolute sincerity seeking to know the secret doctrine of the Rosicrucians. Rosicrucians in all parts of the world to-day are engaged in the Great Work in accordance with the ancient plan found in THE MYSTERIES OF THE EGYPTIAN SECRET SCHOOLS.

This new book explains how the Rosicrucians to-day carry on their system of personal evolution for real seekers who are worthy and ready.

BOOKS BY HENRY THOMAS HAMBLIN

THE LIFE OF THE SPIRIT.

With Foreword by Miss Alice Mortley, writer of Christ in You and Spiritual Reconstruction.

The Editor of THE OCCULT REVIEW said in the August, 1927, issue :

"A contemporary representative of this idealistic type . . . is to be found in Mr. Henry Thomas Hamblin. . . His point of view is essentially that of the Christian mystic. His little work on The Life of the Spirit, for example, is an exposition of the essence of living Christianity which, while simple and unaffected in style, yet pulsates with a depth of feeling that can have sprung only from a profound realisation of spiritual truth. It abounds in teaching of an advanced order, which is likely to prove strong meat indeed to those who are not ready to receive it."

THE MESSAGE OF A FLOWER.

"Infinite beauty is all around us; we are immersed in it, but few can see it, for the eyes of the soul are not yet awakened."

The Editor of THE OCCULT REVIEW said, in the August, 1927, issue :

"The Message of a Flower, a little book which Mr. Hamblin has written on the Divine Immanence in Nature, has reached its 13th thousand. I count it a loss that I have only recently made its acquaintance. . . . In the meantime, while we have mystics like Mr. Hamblin to interpret for us the 'message of the flowers' and point the way to a fuller, richer and more abundant life, we know that in spite of appearances the good will ultimately prevail and all will be well."

SUCCESS

in Journalism and Story-Writing.

Journalism to-day offers as much to its devotees as does any other profession, and, begun as a hobby, Journalism and Short-Story Writing have provided hundreds, nay thousands, of men and women with a new outlook and an increased income.

FAMOUS AUTHORS WHO CONTRIBUTE TO THE COURSE :

Gilbert Frankau, Stacy Aumonier,
H. De Vere Staepoole, Elinor Mordaunt and "Sapper."

The A.B.C. Courses (which include Free-Lance Journalism and Short-Story Writing) are conducted entirely by correspondence, but Mr. Whittingham Boothe, Director of Studies, is always willing to grant an interview and to advise would-be pupils. You may send him one of your MSS. (anything up to 5,000 words) and he will be quite candid, and he will tell you honestly what he considers are your chances of making good as a writer. Even if you do not send him a MS., ask for a copy of "Wordcraft" which gives you full particulars of the A.B.C. WRITER'S COURSE. Write to the Secretary,

SELF-CONTROL AND HOW TO ATTAIN IT. By PHILIP

HARRISON. Editor of "The Writer" and author of "Free-Lance Fallacies."

1s. 6d. net.

Everybody admits the value, both spiritual and material, of self-control. But to attain it, even in a small degree, is usually regarded as almost a superhuman task. In this book the author has endeavoured to show that anyone who practises the right methods may acquire, almost without effort, sufficient self-control for all practical purposes. A section of the book is devoted to examining the difference between true self-control and the many false varieties passing as such.

SONS OF GOD AND SONS OF MEN. By E. H. GILMOUR. 5s. net.

Who are the sons of God, and who are the children of Earth? What is the virgin birth, and who was Mary? These and similar questions are discussed in this study of the legend of Genesis, the author's treatment of which constitutes a daringly unorthodox and original contribution to Biblical interpretation.

This book is a powerful exhortation to a mad world to pause before it is too late. The Rev. Walter Wynn sees the growing menace of the Spirit of Antichrist, and the leaders of men looking everywhere except in the right direction for a way out of their difficulties. The author is no pessimist, however, and in forceful, pungent and anecdotal style he points his remedy: the spirit of Brotherhood and Christ.

Two Souls in One Body?

A Case of Dual Personality.

By HENRY HERBERT GODDARD, Ph.D.

Stranger than fiction is the unusual case of a dual personality, a living "Jekyll and Hyde," in which two identities, one an apparently normal nineteen year old girl, the other a refractory child of four, were alternately in control in the same body. Professor Goddard, a foremost authority in the fields of abnormal and clinical psychology, relates in this volume his first investigation of this strange and uncanny phenomenon, the various characteristics of the two opposing personalities, and the processes by which he endeavoured to bring about a normal psychological condition.

The Riddle of the Ether

By C. G. SANDER, F.R.P.S., D.Sc.

Scientific progress is steadily pressing the investigations of the physicist from the densely material to that more subtle etheric plane which borders on the Unseen Universe. The author, basing his ideas on the hypothesis of contemporary Science, advances some highly original and interesting theories in connection with the constitution of matter and the nature of the Universe. 4s. 6d. net.

Christ and a Mad World

By REV. WALTER WYNN.

Author of "Rupert Lives."

This book is a powerful exhortation to a mad world to pause before it is too late. The Rev. Walter Wynn sees the growing menace of the Spirit of Antichrist, and the leaders of men looking everywhere except in the right direction for a way out of their difficulties.

Fragments from the Teachings of H. P. Blavatsky

Compiled and Edited by H. BURFORD PRATT.

To the many thousands who, interested in the general principles of Theosophy, have neither the time nor inclination to master the contents of the ponderous volumes of H. P. Blavatsky, the Founder of the Theosophical Society, this little volume of extracts, judiciously selected and arranged, should prove of more than passing interest.

Creative Personality

A Study in Philosophical Reconciliation.

By RALPH TYLER FLEWELLING.

In its mediatorial work of reconciliation, the basic position taken in "Creative Personality" is the conception of reality as a world of persons with a supreme person at the head. Personality in effect is the primary idea, and Nature is a derivative idea. A claim to the highest philosophical usefulness is made for this principle as a method, for it enables attention to be concentrated on ethical and religious values rather than on the metaphysical problem.

The standpoint of "Creative Personality" is essentially kin to the Christian view of life.

The Religion of the Spirit

By STANLEY DE BRATH, M.Inst.C.E

Author of "Psychic Philosophy."

The author's call is to the vital essence of religion rather than to the trappings of the countless creeds. His faith is pinned to the Cosmic Christ. Incidentally his work is in the nature of a tocsin, sounding the alarm of coming danger to Western civilisation through the holding of false ideals.

The Riddle of Spiritualism

By E. CLEPHAN PALMER.

A record of phenomena, and a review of current psychical theories vividly described and impartially analysed by an investigator who, commissioned by a leading London newspaper, enjoyed the privilege of sitting with the most noted medium and of meeting the leading personalities in connection with the Spiritualistic Movement.

Sons of God and Sons of Men

By E. H. GILMOUR.

Who are the sons of God, and who are the children of Earth? What is the virgin birth, and who was Mary? These and similar questions are discussed in this study of the legend of Genesis, the author's treatment of which constitutes a daringly unorthodox and original contribution to Biblical interpretation.

BOOKS BY HENRY THOMAS HAMBLIN

THE LIFE OF THE SPIRIT.

With Foreword by Miss Alice Mortley, writer of Christ in You and Spiritual Reconstruction.

The Editor of THE OCCULT REVIEW said in the August, 1927, issue :

"A contemporary representative of this idealistic type . . . is to be found in Mr. Henry Thomas Hamblin. . . His point of view is essentially that of the Christian mystic. His little work on The Life of the Spirit, for example, is an exposition of the essence of living Christianity which, while simple and unaffected in style, yet pulsates with a depth of feeling that can have sprung only from a profound realisation of spiritual truth. It abounds in teaching of an advanced order, which is likely to prove strong meat indeed to those who are not ready to receive it."

THE MESSAGE OF A FLOWER.

"Infinite beauty is all around us; we are immersed in it, but few can see it, for the eyes of the soul are not yet awakened."

The Editor of THE OCCULT REVIEW said, in the August, 1927, issue :

"The Message of a Flower, a little book which Mr. Hamblin has written on the Divine Immanence in Nature, has reached its 13th thousand. I count it a loss that I have only recently made its acquaintance. . . . In the meantime, while we have mystics like Mr. Hamblin to interpret for us the 'message of the flowers' and point the way to a fuller, richer and more abundant life, we know that in spite of appearances the good will ultimately prevail and all will be well."
