

From SPHINX to CHRIST

being the English translation of EDOUARD SCHURÉ'S
 "L'Evolution Divine." Translated by EVA MARTIN.

There is no subject of greater interest than that of humanity's "religious instinct," and in this volume, now available to the English public for the first time, we have an outline of the evolution of religion from the days of ancient Atlantis, through India, Persia, Egypt and Greece, right down to the Christian era. The masterly way in which he has treated so vast a theme can arouse nothing but admiration. The book is full of suggestive and scholarly information, and is lit up by many delightful touches of poetic imagination.

"The writer is highly reverential and of uncommonly wide outlook."—Birmingham Post. "This remarkable book."—Light. ". . . The matter is extraordinary interesting."—Link. "A work of decorative imagination in a historical setting."—Occult Review.

THE GREAT WORLD MOTHER

Who is The Rose of The World ?
Who is The Great World Mother ?
What is The Great World Mother ?

How does She bring forth and feed all the Kingdoms of the Universe ?

Ever within the Centre of the Universe She sitteth. She draweth into Herself, through all Kingdoms, to bring forth Evolution through Her Magnetic Power. She projecteth forth into Herself through all the Kingdoms to create Life through Her Electric Force.

She is the Builder and The Destroyer in Her Duality, but for ever destroys to build anew—She of The Shining Face.

She is Heat and Cold, Day and Night, Life and Death.

She holds the Balance of these forces within Her hands which are The Positive and Passive, working Downward and Upward, from Left to Right, from Centre to Circumference, from Circumference to Centre. But there is also the Point that decides the Balance, and there sits The Great World Mother, composed of Powers and Forces, working in these divers directions, thus establishing the Laws of Gravitation and Levitation to uphold the Universe.

Flowing from this Point, She interpenetrates the physical plane, meeting within the bowels of the Earth, with that Point which came forth from Her, and which originally called the Earth into being.

But now, co-operating with the same forces lying within the Centre, She is ever active in bringing forth as Mother Nature.

According to the Kingdom or the work She manifests in Her Duality. In man She manifests in his magnetic will, magnetic energy, etc.; and in Her Highest Form, in Magnetic Divine Love.

This happens to man or woman, as the physical sex-body has only been created for the procreation of the species.

As we unfold our highest attributes or powers or forces, so do we all partake more of the Image of the Great World Mother in the Mental and Heart Realms.

And as the scientist seeks Her in his realm, so too does he worship Her under Her name "WONDERFUL," if he but remembers that, interwoven with this plane, is a plane invisible to the physical eye, where he works out all his real problems before they manifest here; for within the caverns of his mind is his true laboratory.

The Great World Mother, formed of these Forces and Powers, is part of our being, not only bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, but Spirit of our spirit, and Soul of our soul.

SHE IS THE MOTHER OF ALL LIVING:

Thus we are all centres for HER Activity through the operation of these Forces.

It will therefore be clearly seen that no man or woman in the LIGHT can claim to hold these Forces as centred in himself or herself alone.

On this plane Woman's form represents the Soul of the Great World Mother, and Man the Spirit of the Great World Father.

They are the Bridegroom and the Bride.

United on the Mental and Heart planes they produce the force or the emotion Love; on the still more interior planes, by the electric and magnetic forces they produce Light, and by the swirling of the Centre Currents (the Seat of the Great World Mother, spoken of previously) is Heat produced and Life comes into being. Electricity, Magnetism, Light, Heat—each containing within itself its own seven ethers producing in man the Seven Gifts of the spirit upon the seven planes within himself—above us shining as the Sun, and in the Centre of the earth manifesting as Fire burning to be released to ascend to meet its mate. Each ever drawing on the other for Life upon all Planes.

The Brontës & their Stars

by MAUD MARGESSON. Illustrated with Astrological Charts. 12s. 6d.
An intimate account of the Brontë family treated from the Astrological point of view. It explains, by the help of the stars, much of the mystery that surrounds the lives of these exceptional people. It answers many questions that have perplexed Brontë students, such as: Who wrote "Wuthering Heights"? and, being biographical, the story is of interest to all Brontë lovers.

TEACHINGS of OSIRIS

Set down in the House of El Eros-El Erna, they being male-female, born according to the laws governing the Dhuman-Adamic race, this being their fourth incarnation. Large Demy, pp. xii. + 136. 10/6

Re-incarnation figures largely in the work, not as a matter to be discussed, but as a fundamental and indisputable fact. "It is impossible to touch upon a title of the interesting matter in this remarkable book."—Light.

The two previous books of this series are

The BOOK of TRUTH or "The Voice of Osiris."

With 44 full page plates on superfine art paper. 16/-

In this remarkable work the claim is put forward that the Great Pyramid was a Temple of Initiation, and that the Sphinx is the guardian of the sacred Mysteries of Atlantis, once more to be revealed. The communications—purporting to emanate from an Egyptian hierophant—were clairaudiently dictated.

The CHRONICLES of OSIRIS 10/6

"For ages men have been arguing as to the mere existence of the 'lost continent' . . . at last, happily, the matter has been placed beyond dispute and much new light has been thrown upon it by the spirit of Osiris."—Westminster Gazette. "A remarkable book."—Liverpool Post.

SIR OLIVER LODGE

WHY I BELIEVE IN PERSONAL IMMORTALITY

Is Death the end? Or do our personalities survive? This is undoubtedly the greatest question of our time.

Sir Oliver Lodge here states, in plain, downright terms, the basis of his creed. "I know how weighty the word 'fact' is in science, and I say without hesitation that personal continuance is to me a demonstrated fact."

Sir Oliver proceeds to prove that physical and psychical are always blended; yet the mind and brain are two wholly different things; and thus leads to his conclusion that mind persists after death.

AN IMPORTANT WORK

The ORIGIN of MAN

by ERNEST G. PALMER

4s. 6d.

Author of "The Secret of Ancient Egypt."

The author brings considerable evidence to prove not only that man and civilisation are extremely ancient, but that the earliest fossil forms shew no approximation to the apes. Mr. Palmer traces the origin of man to realms beyond the purely physical and gives curious proofs both of psychic phenomena and of man's survival of death. A wealth of archaeological detail is given to demonstrate the theories put forward, and the author suggests that the Egyptian records contain legends of Atlantean airships; that Atlantean fleets visited English shores, and that an Atlantean mausoleum exists in Kent.

"RESPONDA"

THE TALKING CARD AND PENDULUM

For Messages from the Unknown, and Development of Telepathy.

This provides an easy means of personal investigation into the psychic. It is just a lettered card, and a pendulum so quickly responsive that results come even to those not considered to possess mediumistic faculty. Brings help and comfort to many, sitting alone in their own homes.

Mrs. K. B., Kensington, writes: "Please send a 'Responda' to . . . I who write have had wonderful results with it, and have told many."

Heavy gilt-edged Bevelled Card with Pendulum complete, post paid United Kingdom, 3s. 8d.; Canada and U.S.A., $1.00; other countries, 4s. 3d. Also

"RESPONDA LUMINOUS"

A new form of "Responda."
Can be seen in the Dark!

This is the same in principle as the ordinary "Responda," but is self-luminous, and can be used in light, dusk, or complete darkness. It gives an indescribable sense of the psychic, and is an ideal form to aid development.

Mrs. N. de H. writes: "I want to thank you for your wonderful 'Responda,' which enables me to communicate every day with my beloved husband. Life is quite changed for me since I have it and I am deeply thankful for it. . . Please send a 'Responda Luminous' to . . ."

Complete in case, post paid, home, 15s. 6d.; colonies and abroad, 18s. 6d., or $4.50. (Please note Money Orders payable P.O. Chiswick, Bedford Park, London, W.4, Eng.)

THE GREAT WORLD MOTHER

Who is The Rose of The World ?
Who is The Great World Mother ?
What is The Great World Mother ?

How does She bring forth and feed all the Kingdoms of the Universe ?

Ever within the Centre of the Universe She sitteth. She draweth into Herself, through all Kingdoms, to bring forth Evolution through Her Magnetic Power. She projecteth forth into Herself through all the Kingdoms to create Life through Her Electric Force.

She is the Builder and The Destroyer in Her Duality, but for ever destroys to build anew—She of The Shining Face.

She is Heat and Cold, Day and Night, Life and Death.

She holds the Balance of these forces within Her hands which are The Positive and Passive, working Downward and Upward, from Left to Right, from Centre to Circumference, from Circumference to Centre. But there is also the Point that decides the Balance, and there sits The Great World Mother, composed of Powers and Forces, working in these divers directions, thus establishing the Laws of Gravitation and Levitation to uphold the Universe.

Flowing from this Point, She interpenetrates the physical plane, meeting within the bowels of the Earth, with that Point which came forth from Her, and which originally called the Earth into being.

But now, co-operating with the same forces lying within the Centre, She is ever active in bringing forth as Mother Nature.

According to the Kingdom or the work She manifests in Her Duality. In man She manifests in his magnetic will, magnetic energy, etc.; and in Her Highest Form, in Magnetic Divine Love.

This happens to man or woman, as the physical sex-body has only been created for the procreation of the species.

As we unfold our highest attributes or powers or forces, so do we all partake more of the Image of the Great World Mother in the Mental and Heart Realms.

And as the scientist seeks Her in his realm, so too does he worship Her under Her name "WONDERFUL," it he but remembers that, interwoven with this plane, is a plane invisible to the physical eye, where he works out all his real problems before they manifest here; for within the caverns of his mind is his true laboratory.

The Great World Mother, formed of these Forces and Powers, is part of our being, not only bone of our bone and flesh of our flesh, but Spirit of our spirit, and Soul of our soul.

SHE IS THE MOTHER OF ALL LIVING

Thus we are all centres for HER Activity through the operation of these Forces.

It will therefore be clearly seen that no man or woman in the LIGHT can claim to hold these Forces as centred in himself or herself alone.

On this plane Woman's form represents the Soul of the Great World Mother, and Man the Spirit or the Great World Father.

They are the Bridegroom and the Bride.

United on the Mental and Heart planes they produce the force or the emotion Love; on the still more interior planes, by the electric and magnetic forces they produce Light, and by the swirling of the Centre Currents (the Seat of the Great World Mother, spoken of previously) is Heat produced and Life comes into being. Electricity, Magnetism, Light, Heat—each containing within itself its own seven ethers producing in man the Seven Gifts of the spirit upon the seven planes within himself—above us shining as the Sun, and in the Centre of the earth manifesting as Fire burning to be released to ascend to meet its mate. Each ever drawing on the other for Life upon all Planes.

THE introduction of an idyllic love interest into a romance of Joan of Arc, together with the daring assumption that Joan's voices were Pagan rather than Christian, are two outstanding innovations that make this historical novel one of striking and absorbing originality.

"Jeanne" is a thrilling novel and a daring artistic revelation in addition.

The SCRIPTS of CLEOPHAS

A Reconstruction of Primitive Christian Documents

Recorded by GERALDINE CUMMINS

With a Critical Introduction prepared by a group of distinguished Theological Experts

Twelve and Sixpence

THE contents of this remarkable volume are of extraordinary importance to all who are interested in Christian Origins and in the documentary records of the Primitive Church, constituting, as they do, nothing less than a very early—perhaps contemporary—supplement to the facts recorded in the Acts of the Apostles and other Books of the New Testament.

The present volume covers the period from immediately after the Death of Christ to St. Paul's departure from Berea for Athens (Acts xvii. 15).

The internal evidence is sufficiently strong to bear the scrutiny of the keenest historical criticism. The characters are alive and vivid throughout the volume, the interest is admirably sustained and the quality of the writing will hold the attention even of those to whom the historical element does not appeal.

The Editors state: "If the present record be in any wise authentic it is undoubtedly to be regarded as a most momentous contribution to our knowledge of Apostolic times."

An eminent Doctor of Divinity has stated that "the contents of the Scripts of Cleophas are not only of great interest, but thoroughly orthodox, all the fundamental tenets of the Christian faith being strongly emphasised."

Extract from Prefatory Letter to the volume:

"... I read it with an ever-increasing interest. Should it be accepted at its face value, it will become an epoch-making volume... Above all, it is valuable in adding additional testimony that Jesus the Christ was a real person, the Founder of the Church which bears His name."

"Of the greatest interest... Nothing whatever... to throw any doubt on their authenticity."—Referee.

"To the ordinary reader the Scripts have many merits: they are well written, full of interesting incidents and descriptions, and all relating to a majestically moving story... the interest of the Scripts is very real."—Yorkshire Post.

"Many new characters are introduced, and there is a wealth of circumstantial detail."—British Weekly.

"All matters connected with the history of the Early Church are set out with a dignity and a particularity that makes the book one of fascinating interest... It is a book brimful of interest to the general reader as well as to the Biblical student and the theologian... The book is one we must return to again... it bears the stamp of authority, is highly instructive, restrained and impartial, and cannot fail to be of service to the reader."—Light.

'It always seems to be my fate to do things at the wrong time'

—How often will you hear people making this complaint. Unwittingly perhaps but none the less truly are they stating an important fact. Undoubtedly there is a right and a wrong time for your actions, and these times are not such as can be dictated by the ordinary common-sense reasons.

The right time is when a planet favouring the matter in hand is powerfully placed in the heavens. The wrong time is when the same planet is weak or acting in an adverse manner. You will ask how you are to know these things.

A pocket-size booklet is at your disposal, a glance at which will show you clearly just at what hour of any day for a whole year you can do any specific thing most advantageously.

Many men eminent in business and politics, and some equally well known in the world of sport and adventure make daily use of this guide.

The price is only 3s. 9d. and covers twelve months from the day of purchase. Send for it now and make sure of a successful year.

THE CELESTIAL SHIP OF THE NORTH

By E. VALENTIA STRAITON

A work of ancient symbolism, showing that all true religions, philosophies, ceremonies and rites, are based on natural laws, reflected to earth by the heavens through the constellations and planets. It is a work of mysticism and esoteric astrology, written in the most pleasing and understandable style. Partial list of contents:—The Dawn of Divine Conception. The Mother of Mystery. The Land of Light. Dualities. The Garden Beautiful. The Sacred Four. The Tree. Festivals of Fire. Heavenly measures (Precession of the Equinoxes). The Eye of the Gods. The Ship of Life. The Bridge. Sut or Saturn. The Councilor. The Herald of Light. Etc., etc.

The Occult Review of July, 1927, carried a three-page review in praise of the work. Numerous other magazines in America gave the highest endorsements. Finely bound in two volumes, over 500 pages, indexed and profusely illustrated.

Price $6.00; add 30 cents for postage.

Howard V. Herndon, (Box 1), 690 Market St., San Francisco.

THE HIGHWAY TO THE AFTER LIFE

A SERIES OF ADDRESSES

By the REV. E. PATON WILLIAMS

Author of "The Men of To-day and the Things That Matter."

The title of this book does not by any means cover its contents. In the main, however, it is a beautifully worked-out allegory, a parallel between an earthly traveller's pilgrimage through varied scenery over hill and down dale, westward to sunset, and man's life on earth, ending with a glimpse of the heavenly country beyond. It might almost be called a modern and poetical transcript of "The Pilgrim's Progress." In addition to this allegory the author has added several striking sermons dealing chiefly with present-day difficulties and needs.

The Church of England Newspaper says "Let us say at once, this is not a volume of ordinary addresses. Mr. Paton Williams is never commonplace. His ideas are beautifully expressed; he is always helpful, practical, uplifting and sympathetic with a sure grip on the things that matter. Wayfarers along the highway of life will find here guidance and refreshment with a clear undimmed light shining all the way, and they will hear at the end the tender reassuring voice of the Master saying as of old: "It is I, be not afraid." Cloth, 3s. net.

NATURE—THE ART OF GOD

By the REV. G. T. SHETTLE

Author of "The New Reformation," "John Wicliffe," etc.

This volume of Sermons includes Sunshine, Flowers, Summer, Autumn, Trees, Weather, Parasites. The greater part of each address is made up of beautiful descriptions of the natural phenomena spoken of.

"These picturesque chapters have a good deal of charm."—Church Times.
"There is a touch of poetry in his sermons and they will appeal to lovers of the countryside."—Guardian. Cloth, 2s. net.

THE BEAUTY OF GOD

By the REV. F. FIELDING-OULD

Vicar of Christ Church, Albany Street, N.W.

A series of Meditations on various aspects of God's relation to man. They abound in striking thoughts illustrated by graceful and original imagery.

"Meditations ethical rather than mystical in their general trend and bounding in illustrations and quotations which show that the author has carefully studied types of saintliness beyond the limits of the Anglican Church. There is much wisdom to be found in this small volume."—Guardian.

"There is conviction in these chapters. We find passages which show that the author is not afraid to traverse paths which the orthodox Anglican would rather avoid."—Times Literary Supplement.

"A series of suggested studies upon a great theme; throughout the work there is the note of sincerity."—Baptist Times. Cloth, 3s. 6d. net.

A CALL FROM THE PAST

By Mrs. E. de M. RUDOLF

7/6 net

A charmingly told love story of a modern girl mysteriously linked with a love story of the remote past.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS.

"The strings have been strummed on the love, the sex, and the emotional themes until they are worn thin. Mrs. E. de M. Rudolf chooses another and plays upon it with skilful effect. . . . It is a weird story, but very fascinating."—Weekly Scotsman.

"... a very wholesome book, in the sense that a child might read and enjoy it."—Eastbourne Chronicle.

"Brings the commonplace and the romantic into sharp contrast. It is cleverly done."—Birmingham Gazette.

"Ancient Egypt and modern England form the background for the amazing scenes which take place in this story . . . told in simple style."—Edinburgh Evening News.

"Mrs. E. de M. Rudolf carries through with almost brilliant success the amazing extravagance of her novel."—Dundee Courier.

"... a book which compels even the most incredulous person to read on and on until the last page."—Sheffield Daily Telegraph.

HENRI BERGSON

by

JACQUES CHEVALIER

Authorised Translation by

LILIAN A. CLARE

THE translation here presented of the lectures on Bergson and his doctrine given by Professor Chevalier has been undertaken under his own eye and with his personal collaboration throughout. Had this valuable help not been available, the difficulty of the subject would have made it an impossible task for the present translator. Professor Chevalier's familiarity with the English language and his sympathetic understanding of the aims and ideals of the English-speaking races have often smoothed the way, and given additional interest and pleasure to the work of translation.

The translation of Bergson's criticism of the Einstein theory of relativity has been very kindly undertaken by Professor Chevalier's friend, Thomas Greenwood, M.A., F.R.G.S., of the University of London.

TELEPATHY &

Spirit Communication

by L. MARGERY BAZETT

Foreword by Sir FRANK R. BENSON

To what extent is telepathy responsible for spirit communication? What are the limits of the part played by thought transference in psychic messages? The records in the present volume of experiments, specially devised with a view to throwing further light on the complications of a problem which no critical analysis of the phenomena of mediumship can afford to ignore, will, it is hoped, prove of value alike to the general reader and the practical investigator.

HENRI BERGSON

by

JACQUES CHEVALIER

Authorised Translation by

LILIAN A. CLARE

THE translation here presented of the lectures on Bergson and his doctrine given by Professor Chevalier has been undertaken under his own eye and with his personal collaboration throughout. Had this valuable help not been available, the difficulty of the subject would have made it an impossible task for the present translator. Professor Chevalier's familiarity with the English language and his sympathetic understanding of the aims and ideals of the English-speaking races have often smoothed the way, and given additional interest and pleasure to the work of translation.

The translation of Bergson's criticism of the Einstein theory of relativity has been very kindly undertaken by Professor Chevalier's friend, Thomas Greenwood, M.A., F.R.G.S., of the University of London.

The ORIGIN of MAN

by ERNEST G. PALMER. Author of "Secret of Ancient Egypt." Takes the origin of man into the psychic and spiritual realms and gives curious proofs both of psychic phenomena and of man's survival of death. A wealth of archæological detail is given to demonstrate these facts, and the author suggests that the Egyptian records contains legends of Atlantean airships; that Atlantean fleets visited English shores, and that an Atlantean mausoleum exists in Kent.

The General Book of the Tarot

by A. E. THIERENS, Ph.D.

With an Introduction by ARTHUR E. WAITE.

There are few branches of Occultism more perennially fascinating than the Tarot.
This contribution of Dr. Thierens to the interpretation of the traditional Tarot and the elucidation of its symbolism should prove of permanent value alike to the serious student of the subject and to the practitioner who takes the intelligent interest in the rationale of the special application of the Tarot to the purposes of the divination.

MY PERILOUS LIFE IN PALESTINE

By ROSAMOND DALE OWEN.

(Mrs. Laurence Oliphant).

12s. 6d.

Rosamond Dale Owen, widow of Laurence Oliphant and grand-daughter of Robert Owen, "the father of co-operation," gives us the details of a long and interesting life. Her book is courageously frank and outspoken and records the spiritual struggles she had to endure, the visions that guided her, and the amazing difficulties she had to overcome before entering into her inheritance of Armageddon.

THE ENCYCLOPÆDIA OF PSYCHOLOGICAL ASTROLOGY (2nd Ed.)

A Standard Text-book on the subject of the Astrology of Human Temperament. Almost every conceivable human peculiarity is included, in alphabetical order, with its usual astrological indications and numerous examples, many of them of well-known persons. A large number of Diseases are also included, together with notes as to their astrological causes. This book has enjoyed a very extensive vogue in Britain and the States. Price, post free, 5s. 3d.

Astrology, Numerology, Symbolism, Graphology, Lore of Jewels, Colours, Perfumes, are all knit together in these lessons into one simple, rational system. In them the gem of traditional Occult learning is made more clear and brilliant by its setting of original research. Write for free descriptive booklet of my work.

THE INFLUENCE OF MUSIC ON HISTORY AND MORALS: A VINDICATION OF PLATO

By CYRIL SCOTT. 7s. 6d. net.

"May I well become the most talked-of music book of the year. However much we may be startled by the conclusions, it must be said that the arguments are always ingenious and incline the reader to say at least 'almost thou persuadest me.'"—Glasgow Herald.

MASTERS & DISCIPLES

By CLARA M. CODD. 2s. net.

An invaluable text-book for students of this subject, with full bibliographies.

GANDHARVA MUSIC

By JOHN FOULDS. Op. 49. 2s. net.

This music was heard clairaudiently and transposed for the piano. It is part of the music inherent in things themselves. Gandharias is the Indian name for the music angels through whom this work was contracted.

THE THEOSOPHY OF REINCARNATION

By CHARLOTTE E. WOODS. 6d.

This booklet has been reprinted by The Theosophical Review on account of the peculiar importance of the subject for this year's course of study
