DIVINE LAW

The greatest Law man e'er did seek,
Even from the most primitive time,
Which leads us up the highest peak
To the grandest goal sublime.

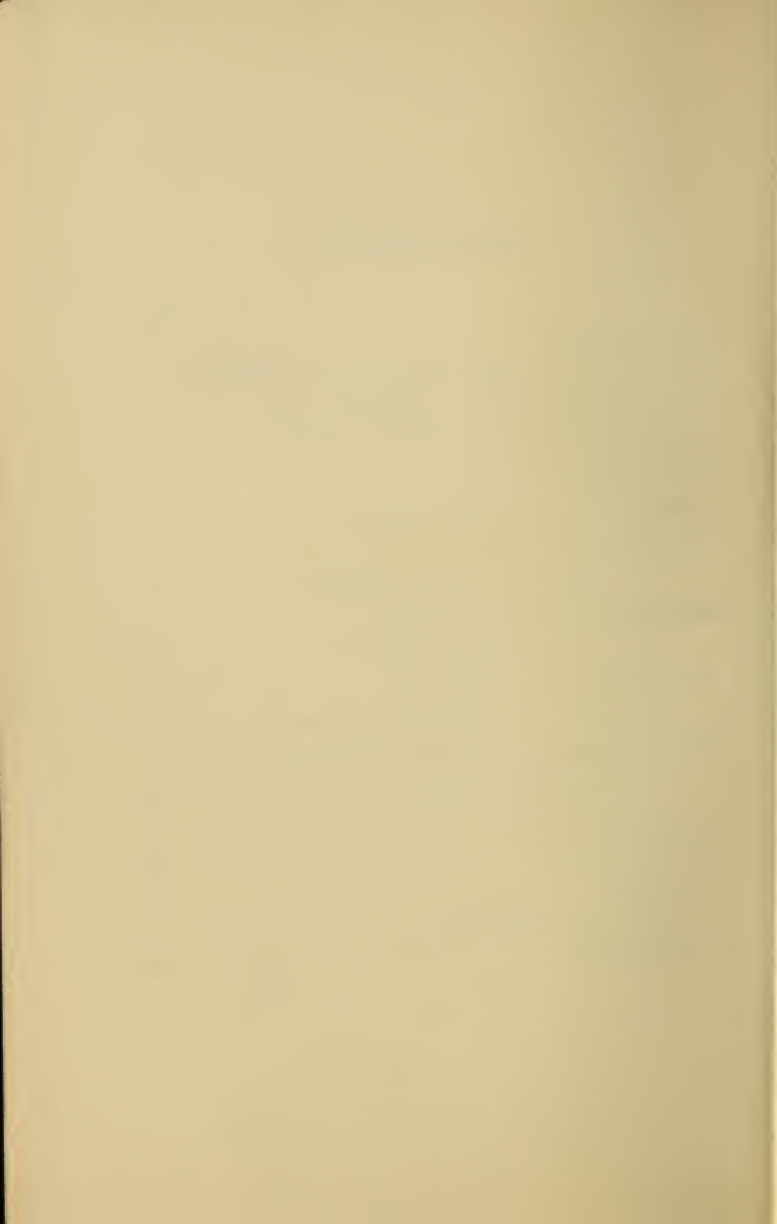

This Law for years many score,
Has been so tightly sealed,
Now shines as clear as the simplest law
In Euclid's mental field.

And sure we know it is exact,
And soars to the loftiest crown;
By just alone the single fact,
No soul can tear it down.

INTRODUCTORY.

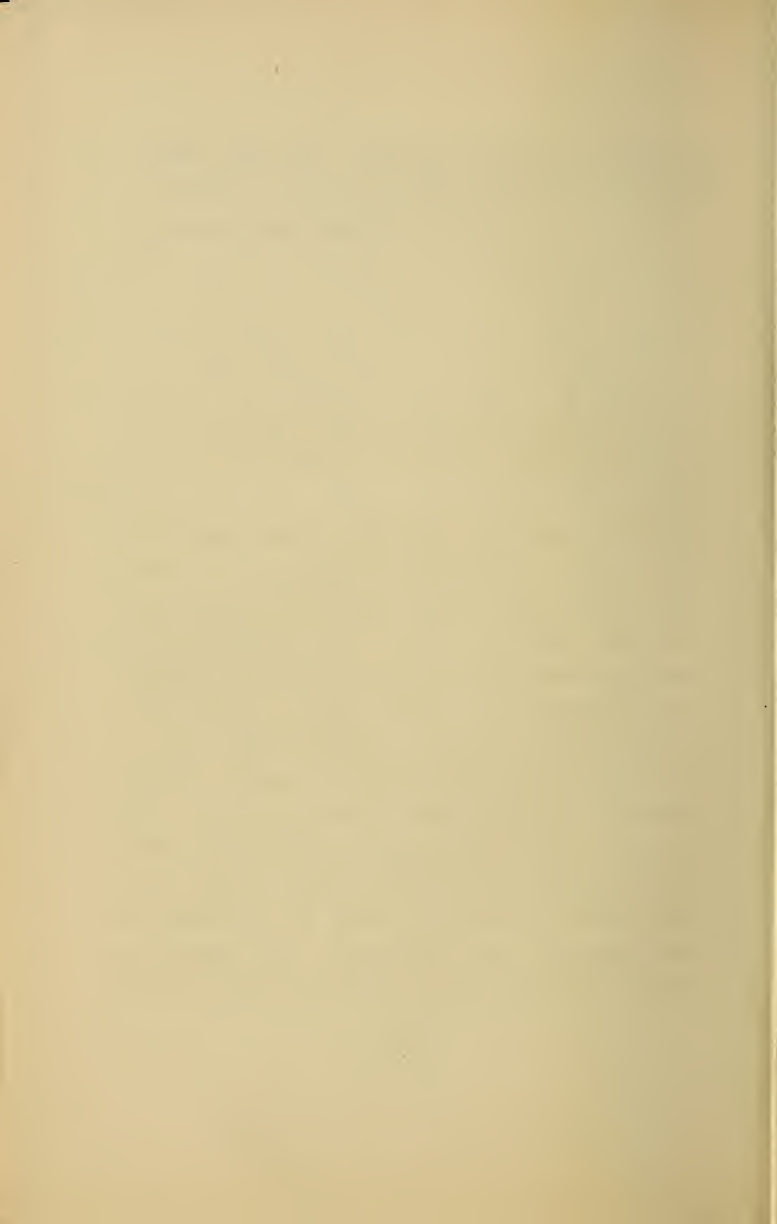

THIS book of divine laws, which are new to this age, but as eternal as God, are intended for all classes of people, atheist, Christian, Jew, agnostic, in fact any sect or religious denomination, believers or unbelievers, regardless of creed, color, or race, that they may understand and apply these Laws with great benefit to themselves.

The author has endeavored to make them clear and concise in simple language, so simple in fact that a child may not err therein. He has applied the non-resistant law practically, and knows whereof he speaks.

He has no condemnation for any Church or religious denomination under the sun, for he knows each one is essential, and has its place in the building of the whole structure of Truth. The atheist and agnostic can easily agree with this premise, as well as any professor or natural scientist. Each and all naturally know that the basic principles are true, for they can see them everywhere. Any Christian with a little study will readily understand that they harmonize perfectly with the teachings of Jesus, and a few other historic characters. The Truth itself is simple, in fact it is so simple that people pass it by. The reader is urged not to accept these ideas in blind faith, but to reason them out intelligently, with an eye single to the discovery of Truth. With the knowledge that this volume will raise mankind into a higher consciousness of Love and Wisdom, and establish the Kingdom of Heaven on earth more quickly, the author leaves you to be the sole judge whether The New Era Philosophy is true or false.

THE AUTHOR.

GOD AND MANKIND THEIR COMPOSITION

THE great question of the ages has been, who and what is God and man, and what are their composition? The first chapter of Genesis in the Bible describes man as being made in the image and likeness of God, but it does not state what God is. Farther on in the Bible we read that God is infinite and perfect. Jesus said that God is spirit, according to the new version of the New Testament. We have been taught by some that God is spirit but invisible, and not in any way a part of what we term matter, or that something exists which is no part of God, although God is infinite, which means all. That is contradictory. Now let us view these statements of the Bible in the light of reason, logic, and "common sense," and see whether they are true or false. In everyday life we know that there is a cause for every effect, and that there can be no effect without a cause, and that cause and effect are alike. The sun cannot produce darkness, the effect of the sun is light exactly like itself, so the sun and its light are one in essence. Now that same principle applies to God, man, and the universe. Man and the universe is an effect and the effect must be composed of the same substance as the cause, called God, and they must be alike in composition. So in the light of scientific, non-contradictory reasoning and logic, we are compelled to admit that the Biblical statements are true in regard to man being made in the image and likeness of God, the first great Cause, as it could not be otherwise.

Having reached this absolutely scientific conclusion, let us find out the composition of God, and how is that done?

Simply by analyzing man. If we analyze one cup of water taken from the ocean, we have analyzed the whole ocean, comparatively speaking, and know exactly what the ocean is composed of. So if we analyze man, he being the image or effect of God, we have analyzed God and understand exactly what His composition is. When we look at man what do we see? (When I say man I mean all mankind, including wo-man.) We see just two things, or two principles. We see the body, or the Matter principle, the negative, feminine, subjective part of man. And we also see Intelligence, the positive, masculine, ruling principle of man. Thus we see in man two principles, Intelligence the positive, Matter the negative. Having analyzed man, and no sane-minded person can deny these self-evident facts, we have actually analyzed

God. He is Intelligence, Matter, and Law. Intelligence cannot be destroyed, neither can Matter.

You can change the form of Matter, but you cannot destroy the Matter itself, therefore it is eternal, and if eternal it must be divine, therefore Godly, because God is eternal and divine. Intelligence is changeless Wisdom, Matter is under the Law to undergo changes. We see Matter changing every moment, but it would be powerless to act without the invisible Intelligence to rule it. Intelligence would be unable to manifest itself without its opposite, Matter, to act upon. So we see that one principle is just as essential as the other, and one could not work without the other. Intelligence and Matter always did, and always will exist.

The Law of Intelligence is that they shall unite and become one, and express Life. Man and woman are perfect imitators of God, Intelligence and Matter, in this respect, they unite and become one, and a third principle of LIFE is manifested. "And God said, let us make man in our image and likeness." (Genesis, 1:26.) Us means plural, or more than one.

Us means the two principles as stated. The final Law is that we should love both alike, the negative as well as the positive. But for centuries it has been a one-sided love. Mankind has been worshiping a Positive, Masculine, Father Principle Intelligence, and denying the Negative, Feminine, Mother Principle Matter. The day is at hand where we must love the Negative or Feminine, equally with the Positive or Masculine, and when that is done we will have a Love Power that will work miracles. Jesus gave us a glimpse of the truth when he said our love should be like the sun, which sheds its light on the good and the evil, the just and the unjust. In other words, he meant our love should be divine and impartial, and that it should be equally as great for the negative, as well as for the positive. It is easy for us to love the positive, harmony and good, but the test comes to us when we are called upon to love the negative, discord and evil. Jesus knew it was only through Love that he could conquer. He says, "Love your enemies."

An enemy is negative to you. Love him divinely as a brother, and you become his master, for you have removed all resistance between you and him, and you hold the upper hand. Now when Jesus said love your enemies, he meant it in a broad sense. He also said, "Resist not evil," and "Agree with thine adversary quickly," which are only other names for enemy. Therefore evil is an enemy and typifies negativeness, and he commands us to love it. When we follow his commandment and love the negative side of life as much as the positive, we become Masters, and will have power and dominion, and will purify and transfigure the body as he did. Woman who typifies the negative principle has been denied and crushed for ages. In fact all feminine, negative principles has from time immemorial been subject to abuse and denied. We must become wise and recognize that down-trodden principle in order to fulfill the Law of God, for it is through woman that men reach the zenith of greatness. Love all negative conditions. But you may ask, must I love sickness and corruption? Yes, for Love is positive, and sickness and corruption are negative to health and incorruption, therefore inject divine Love into them, and a third principle of harmony is manifested. Of course a wise man is above corruption. He lives the pure life, but has no condemnation for those who prefers the other, for it belongs to their stage of development. He knows some day, either here or hereafter, they will be where he is, developed above and beyond all of the low vibrations. He is the best preacher who sets the best example. Man and woman are opposites, yet they have to unite to perpetuate mankind. The positive and negative poles are required to generate electricity. Jesus was a scientific man, for he understood the Law, and by applying it he wrought his so-called miracles.

With the power of Love he cured all diseases. Love your disease and it will vanish. But you never can cure it scientifically by denying or condemning it. Love is the only way, and Love applied to all things fulfills the Law, as Christ said. Now, dear reader, if you believe in his teachings, you must certainly acknowledge that these statements are correct, and you can easily prove it for yourself if you wish. It may be in a small way at first, but the lesser demonstrations prove the greater. If you do not believe in Jesus Christ, or doubt that such a man ever lived, apply the rule anyway, and you will find that it works perfectly. It makes no difference from whom the idea came, it was born into the world by some individual person, and the personality is only the instrument through which the idea was brought forth. God's divine ideas are eternal and entirely separate from personality, the same as water is separate from the water-pipe through which it flows.

That is, they do not mix. This divine Law of God is eternal and unchangeable, and whenever applied will produce good results. Non-resistance fulfills the law and is sinless. Resistance violates the law and is sin.

Take away all resistance in your consciousness between you and the universe, and you are at One, or in harmony with the universe. Resistance develops discord and inharmony. The Bible speaks of the operation of the non-resistant law in many instances. When Daniel was thrown into the lion's den he removed all resistance in his consciousness between him and them, and had no fear, hence they could not harm him as that law of non-resistance or Love fully protected him. John says, "There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear." You may say that you see so much evil that you can't help resisting. But Jesus knew that divine Love was the remedy, for he says, "Resist not evil," and, "Overcome evil with good." Can you permanently overcome negative conditions by fighting and resisting? That method has been tried for centuries, but we can see that there are still wars and lack of brotherhood among mankind, therefore it cannot be the true method.

Experience teaches us that Love brings out harmony. If you love man and the universe, you are in harmony with them, aren't you? And if you reflect divine Love for all things that exist as God does, can anything by any means hurt you any more than it can God? Everything that exists is for some purpose and has virtue, or God would not permit it to exist, and if He does not condemn it we certainly should not do so, but should know that it is for some good in the divine plan, even if we can't just exactly understand it as yet. Nothing can hurt or harm a person who loves all things divinely for Love is God's eternal Law. Swing in that Law, and you will be free from accidents, poverty, sickness, and all so-called evils. That Law will protect you as it protects God, because you are at one with Him. It is more natural to be healthy, good and happy, than it is to be the opposite. Jesus cured all diseases through God's will, as he said, consequently it is God's will that all mankind should be well and happy, but it is also law for them to be the opposite if they choose, as they have free-will. He took them out of bondage and darkness into freedom and light, and he did it through Love.

Night is the opposite of day, and it is good when we wish to sleep and we do not condemn it, and neither did Jesus condemn ignorance, superstition, sickness and fear, but through Love and non-condemnation, he led those who were ready into Light and understanding. He knew there had to be opposites throughout all the universe as it is the eternal law, hence he saw it as good. Even when we become conscious of perfect oneness with God, which is heaven, we still have the two principles, man and woman negative to the positive God. Jesus said, "My Father is greater than I." He recognized the two principles everywhere. You do not have to exert very much mind power to know that there are two sides to everything. Your so-called physical body has two sides, front and back. Front is positive, back is negative, and the negative always follows the positive when you take a step forward.

Even on this paper you see two principles. The paper itself is negative, and the printing on it is positive, and one is just as essential as the other, is it not? Then love the negative in everything as well as the positive, for by so doing you show impartiality, and the beam in your eye is cast out. When you attain that state of consciousness you will have no power to condemn, for you will see the good in everything, and will experience a joy unspeakable.

GOD AND MANKIND THEIR LAWS

THE first great Cause called God must be infinite or He would not be God. And if infinite, He must be omnipresent. What do we see as ever present with us? Nothing but Intelligence, Matter, and Law. Now this is what this absolute scientific Philosophy claims, that God, Spirit, is composed of Intelligence, Matter, and Law, two in principle, and the Law is for them to unite and become one, which expresses a manifestation of Life. In that spiritual concept of Matter we see it as spiritual Matter, therefore good as being one part of God. In that spiritual sense, we love all things that exists, consequently we are in perfect harmony with the whole universe. That is the true Christ consciousness, for he had nothing but love for all, and when we have that Wisdom or consciousness, we feel within the power that he possessed.

Now we can understand that man and woman are really made in the image and likeness of God, Spirit, which is Intelligence and Matter, therefore they are perfect spiritual beings like their Creator.

Intelligence is the masculine, positive, giving principle of God, Matter is the feminine, negative, receiving principle of God. Each are under different laws. One is under the law to give, the other is under the law to receive. Men and women are perfect imitators of God, man the masculine is under the law to give, woman the feminine is under the law to receive, and those laws must be obeyed in order to receive

God's blessings. Matter is developed by the law of Intelligence from a crude to a matured state, and when ready they become united, and a manifestation of Life is expressed, such as a flower, etc. The highest idea or manifestation of God is man and woman. All of His ideas are expressed in order from the lesser to the greater. God is both Creator and Formator. He creates ideas, and then forms them out of Himself, Intelligence and Matter. Man and woman are only formators, they cannot create, as God is the only Creator. Men and women formate children according to the law, but the idea always did exist in the divine Intelligence. Men and women have passed through three kingdoms, mineral, vegetable, and animal. They have the reflection of the universe in their bodies. The bone symbolizes the mineral kingdom, the hair the vegetable, and the flesh the animal kingdom. When mankind awakens from their dream of ignorance and sin, which typifies the dark side of life, and becomes conscious of their perfect dominion over their bodies, they will find that they are masters of the whole situation. Jesus said, "I have overcome the world, the flesh, and the devil," and he accomplished it through Wisdom and Love. "And God said, let them have dominion," according to the first chapter of Genesis, which logically was given man after he was created. A God of Love could not do otherwise, for Wisdom would certainly not make man its highest idea, subject to conditions.

A loving human father desires to have his child free and happy, and surely an all-wise Father, whose Love transcends that of the human, would surely give His children freedom, happiness, and dominion, He having the power to do as He wills. When God created man He made him perfect, but mankind passing through the ignorant, negative consciousness, has not developed up to that state where they are conscious of their perfection, and the inexhaustible God-power within them, hence they cannot express their perfection. When man has progressed far enough in spiritual evolution to awake and become conscious of his perfect spiritual individuality, he then will be controlled by Wisdom and Love, instead of error and condemnation. He will let Wisdom purify his flesh and experience health and Holiness, instead of sickness and corruption. A pure consciousness produces a pure body, for the body is subjective to consciousness. Mankind have been dwelling on the dark side of Life, and it is good and lawful, for darkness is good and lawful for a period of time, but now is the time for those who are ready to awake, for the "Sun of Righteousness is appearing with healing in its wings."

MAN AND WOMAN THEIR LAWS

MAN and woman are under opposite laws. One of the main reasons why men and women are not more harmonious is because they do not understand the laws they are under, therefore are constantly transgressing, with discordant results. They cannot fulfil each other's laws, each have to fulfil their own. A man's head is under a different law than his legs, one is under the law to think and execute, the other is for locomotion and service. They cannot change places. So it is with man and woman. Woman is the subjective prinprinciple of mankind, the same as Matter is the subjective principle of God. Matter reflects the ideas of Intelligence, woman reflects the ideas of man. All the commandments and laws of God were given to man the ruling principle, and he in turn gives them to woman, which she reflects. Never blame a woman when you see her in sin, but understand that it was imposed on her by man, as she is subjective to him. Jesus said to the woman taken in adultery, "Neither do I condemn thee," also to the men who brought her to him, "He that is without sin cast the first stone." He knew that man was the cause of her apparent fallen state. Intelligence governs Matter, man governs woman, which should be done in Wisdom and Love, and when not fulfilled there is inharmony. Intelligence forever rules, and Matter the naught or subjective, cannot govern the positive. That same rule applies to man and woman. Matter has a subjective intelligence or power to reflect. In fact it is a perfect servant to Intelligence and man. It is for us to use and do as we will. We have often heard it said, "The old mother earth," and it is a true saying. Matter is derived from the word "Mater," which means "Mother." Matter is the God-Mother, Intelligence is the God-Father, two opposite principles which work harmoniously as one. So love Matter with all your heart as you would your mother, for they are the feminine. When the Wisdom of this truth becomes apparent to you, you will love Matter with all your Soul and experience a joy that you never felt before. By this I do not mean that you should worship graven images as in olden time, but to Love it impartially and divinely as God does. I put a stress on Matter in order to impress you with its sacredness, because it, with all other feminine principles, have been denied from the foundation of the world. Of course we should love Intelligence equally as well, but what I am trying to convey is, that we should love the negative equally with the positive, and then we shall not have a one-sided love, but a broad, impartial, divine Love that covers the whole universe. Jesus loved the negative so well that even the waves of the sea obeyed him. He knew that all Matter was subject to him, whether in the gaseous, liquids, or solid forms. Men and women must also know the laws they are under and apply them. God blesses man whenever he gives woman pure Love and Wisdom, and she, if ready, will also receive a blessing by receiving it. A wise woman will never allow an ignorant man to impose his attentions on her, neither will a wise man impose his attentions on any woman, it being law for her to make her own selection. A wise man who has divine Love in expression will naturally attract his divine opposite, as the law brings them together when worthy. Love is ever attractive, never repulsive. When you become ready for a divine helpmeet, she will be attracted to you, for as soon as you commence to rise in the consciousness of Wisdom and Love, the woman who was intended for you in the beginning, also commences to rise in consciousness, and sooner or later you will meet her, and you both know at once you were intended for each other. "God made them male and female." Each person has their other half somewhere in the universe and sometime, somewhere, either here or hereafter will unite and become one. God's Law is immutable and eternal, and can never be changed. When man marries woman she drops her name and takes his, and they become one. He assumes the masculine or executive role, and she becomes his helpmeet in magnifying his ideas. That is, she becomes the love force that urges him to greater endeavors. She becomes a God to him, and he worships her as such until the time arrives when both are able to worship God and His Law only. Any good woman can worship a Godly man, and is ever looking for him. A Godly wise woman cannot associate with an ungodly man, but an ungodly woman may associate with a Godly man, for it is through him that she has her redemption as he is the ruling principle. Mary Magdalene became converted through the Godly Jesus, and he did not repulse her. As woman is the reflector, it is man's business to become perfect in Godliness, for by so doing he redeems both himself and woman, and it becomes her joy to reflect him. But matrimonial troubles will continue in this world, until man becomes upright. A woman's Soul Self is always virtuous and good, although she may not be expressing it, but remember we must love both sides. Love a woman and her ways no matter how deceitful they may be, and sooner or later she will worship you and fall at your feet, for you have proven yourself a Master in Love.

Through that Love you will reform her, and she will do your bidding which must be Godly.

A woman and her ways might be likened to a chicken in the shell. The shell is the negative, and the chicken the positive. We love or respect the shell for it contains the chicken. So it is with woman. The real inner nature of woman is virtuous which is positive, but her ways and actions may be exactly opposite which typifies negativeness, but as we must love both principles as it is the divine law, we must love that shell or negativeness, and through that Love we convert her into Purity and Righteousness, as no woman can withstand such Love as that, which is the highest. It is the divine Power that holds her in perfect submission, as it is her highest joy to serve a Godly man. Any Godly woman if she so desires, may by Loving divinely an ignorant man and his ways, can hold him under perfect control until he gains

Wisdom, and then the situation is reversed. When any man and his wife who are living an inharmonious life, take away all resistance between each other, they become indissolubly united with the unbreakable bonds of divine Love, which is absolutely spiritual. That is the true heavenly marriage, which was intended.

In the dark, carnal, condemning consciousness, they were married in form only, and were uncongenial, but in Wisdom and Love they became married spiritually. A man may say he loves his wife and if she prefers enjoyment outside of him, he will at once become jealous. The love he had is not the true love, it is only a sensual, selfish love, but of course it was the best he had according to his state of development. If he was a wise man and had the true divine Godly Love, he would place no resistance in her way, but would tell her to do as she pleased, for he would know that she was not truly married to him, and through that law of non-resistance she would repent, and become his divinely. It is a law that never fails if any person is courageous enough to apply it. You must put all stubbornness and preconceived ideas behind you, and go forth with the stern resolve to apply the non-resistant law, and if you do all things will come your way. That is "Seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness," or fulfilling the Law, and the rest will be added to you. This Perfect Science is a law of health and success to any person who has eyes to see, and ears to hear. You know, dear reader, that this law of non-resistance or Love is true. You perhaps can feel the response within yourself when you read these truths. For truths they surely are, as all persons will certainly recognize when they have reached that state of development where they are able to understand and apply the laws herein given.

THE CYCLE OF LIFE

Everything In Existence moves in a cycle. The planets revolve in a cycle around the sun. Every molecule and atom in our body are revolving at an immense speed, according to the latter day scientists. Everything is traveling from one extreme to the other. Water from the ocean and lakes rises and forms into clouds, and then falls back again. The ocean swings back and forth, the flow and ebb tides. There is a North and a South pole, day and night, sunshine and rain, heat and cold, summer and winter, and everything is in perpetual motion, all is Life. And so mankind are all traveling in a cycle, and from one extreme to the other, no beginning, no ending. The law is that they shall experience both extremes, both night and day. "And God called the darkness Night, and the light He called Day," showing two principles according to Genesis. Imagine in your mind a perfect circle drawn on white paper, with a straight line drawn down through the middle. Imagine the left hand side of the line in the middle to be colored black, and the right hand side to be white. Now the position of mankind today is on the black or dark side. They have been coming down the circle of darkness, ignorance, superstition, sin, and fear, and now the day is approaching where they must hatch out of that shell of darkness into the Light of Truth, Wisdom, and Love.

After they are hatched they can never go back into the shell, but must ever keep on progressing around the circle to the top, for progress is God's law. When I say man had no beginning, I mean his Soul which is him, because he is a living Soul, always was, is, and ever will be one with God. Man, Soul, is the eternally representative of God, and God is eternally represented in man, God has no beginning or ending, neither does man his image. When man was created and given dominion, means that he always was, and always had dominion, but when in ignorance and the darkness of the human consciousness, he knew it not, consequently could not exercise his power. But after emerging into the light of Wisdom, he becomes conscious of his power and dominion then he is able to demonstrate it and prove that he is a perfect child of God. A man might be starving while having money in his pocket without knowing it, and being unconscious of it being there, it would do him no good. So it is with us, if we are not developed into that consciousness where we know our power, we cannot use it. Some time all mankind will understand and demonstrate their God-given dominion. God has no favorites, there are no big I's and little you's in his kingdom. We are all big I's in his sight, but each are in different stages of development. All the waves of the ocean do not strike the shore at the same time, but one follows the other in endless succession. Likewise with mankind they will all strike the shore of perfection sometime, as they unfold and develop, for within them are the attributes of perfection, goodness and wisdom, like the acorn has all the attributes of the oak tree within itself. The old idea that an impartial God made one person better than another is erroneous. The old teaching has been, and it served its purpose, somebody is It, and you are nobody, and that you must depend on some human personality for salvation. You must look to the God within you, to your own Soul Self for guidance, for God is fully expressed within you, and you contain all of His attributes. Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is within you," and that is absolutely true. God is ever waiting within us to express Himself whenever we allow Him. When we do allow our Soul Self, which is Love, to take possession of us, then we will experience heaven, perfect joy and bliss. We will then have perfect health, happiness, and harmony.

We must cast the beam out of our eye, and allow the Law of Love to govern us absolutely. We should see Jesus as an elder brother, and a most highly developed Soul. We should look more to the Principle he taught than to his personality, although we must always love, and recognize him as a Savior to all who accept him, and keep his commandments. He says, "If ye love me, keep my commandments," that is, apply his teachings. We must understand that the Christ was the Principle or Law which Jesus taught. And that Law was Love. The Soul Intelligence is the same in every person, and never changes, it only unfolds itself.

When the Soul takes possession of the body, instead of wrong negative ideas, sensation is harmonious and perfect. We can never associate negative thoughts with a negative body and have harmonious results.

We must allow the positive Soul thoughts Love, Truth, Wisdom, to take possession of the body, and govern it harmoniously. And if the pure eternal Soul has possession, how can the body, it being subjective, become corrupt and die? We must awake to the great truth about man, and then we can demonstrate unlimitation, perfection, and freedom.

THE LAW OF FULFILLMENT

This Science teaches that we should have good-will toward all, Churches, physicians, in fact toward all the various combinations, sciences, etc., that are in the world today, and shows why we should do so. We must love and respect all of the various religious denominations that have helped to bring forth the Fruits of the "Tree of Life." They are part of that Tree, roots, trunk, branches, leaves, etc., and now comes the Perfect Christian Divine Science, which recognizes them all, for they were essential in their place. Never condemn any Church just because you do not believe in it, for it was good for the other person if not for you, and to manifest true brotherhood you must love it for his sake. Would you take away the toys from your child? Even if you are a step higher in spiritual development and understanding than your brother, allow him to enjoy his belief until he is ready to receive your ideas. You were once on his plane of intelligence, in a former existence if not here, so do not condemn him if he does not see things as you do. Some day he will be where you are if you have the Truth, for progress is the law. All mankind is developing, and "Not one jot or tittle shall pass away until all be fulfilled." We must have troubles and calamities of various kinds, until men and women have unfolded to that extent that they can perceive the Law and keep God's commandments.

When any person lives in perfect harmony with God's Law, they become free from accidents, sickness, poverty, and even the last enemy, death.

Become at one with divine Love and Wisdom without the shadow of condemnation for any thing that exists, and that Law of Love will protect you absolutely, for then you are one with God Himself. Jesus says, "I and my Father are one," and James says, "God is Love." Jesus being in absolute oneness with the impartial God-Love, had the power to execute his wonderful works. It is the power of Love that moves the world, and that power is equal to all occasions when understood and applied.

If you are in harmony with all things you will attract what is necessary for your well being. Carry in your heart no resentment against any person or thing, but show perfect Love, and everything will come your way. Take away all resistance between you and mankind, and they will feed and clothe you, for you are their Master.

You will have all you need. Poverty will vanish if Loved divinely. Of course you must use your intellect and be open to the opportunities you will attract. Never condemn anything. Whatever your Soul Self tells you to do, go and do it and don't argue, for Soul never tells you to do wrong.

When in Soul Wisdom you may fulfill every desire for they are Godly, but when in ignorance and governed by negative ideas which is sin, mankind must be restricted. We have heard much said about the Devil, but no one has ever explained just what he is, although all have admitted that he is a deceiver. Now this much talked of Devil is composed simply of a mass of wrong, negative ideas about God, man, and the universe.

He is superstition, criticism, preconceived ideas, prejudice, condemnation, hate, and all deceiving ideas that go to make up a first class Devil. The Bible says that Satan (another name for Devil) deceiveth the whole world, and it is true, mankind are governed by deceitful, false ideas about themselves and God, and they will never become free until all that is wiped away, and the Truth, or Soul Self which is God, takes possession and governs them. Then the Truth, or Soul, will make them free, as Jesus said. The deceiving idea that the sun revolved around the earth governed astronomers for years, until they knew the truth that the earth revolved around the sun, and then they were able to make accurate calculations based on a correct premise. We must allow the positive Truth to govern us instead of negative error. But it was law that we should pass through this negative, dark state of consciousness, so find no fault with it, but now emerge from darkness into Light. All of our experiences are good for development, and help us to progress. They may seem evil at the time, but on looking backward we see that they were for our betterment. If we are not intelligent enough to know what to do at the proper time, in a crisis, experience will teach us, and if wise will profit by that experience in the future. So on we march in the cycle of eternal life. When controlled by Soul Love you can demonstrate the psychic power and prophecy, for Soul knows the future, as well as the past and present. Jesus used his psychic power on many occasions. He told the Samaritan woman all about herself, and she admitted it was true. All this may be proven by any person who has become Soul awakened, and will apply the Law as laid down in this book. This Law is just as demonstratable as mathematics, music, or any other science, only this is the absolute Science of God, and is wholly spiritual. I do not quote Jesus or his students because I have a blind belief in the Bible, but because the statements quoted are strictly scientific.

They can be proven in our modern life right now, and those who understand this Science are proving them to be correct. This Truth is perfect, consistent, flawless, non-contradictory, and no person can find in it one error from premise to conclusion. It is the only doctrine that will bring you into perfect God-Love, and free you absolutely from all condemnation. And it is logic, reason, and "common sense." You do not have to strain yourself to believe these ideas, for you already know them, you only need some person to bring them to your mind. All Wisdom is contained within yourself, for God made you wise, so you really know all Truth now, but you don't know that you know it, perhaps as yet. Some person is necessary to remind you of it. This book is simply a reminder. It cannot teach you anything, it can only take away the untrue teachings, and bring to light the Truth within you. Suppose someone should remind me of a person's name I could not think of, I would say, O yes, that is it: I knew it but couldn't think of it. That is the way with you. You know the Truth but can't think of it. Allow your Soul to speak and you will always speak the Truth, for Soul is Truth, God. It is the invisible Power that fills all immensity, with center everywhere, and circumference nowhere, and is centralized in every human being. We see the trinity in every living thing. This Philosophy calls that trinity Intelligence, Matter, and Law, two principles, and the Law of unity and power, Holy Ghost. We must love all animals, insects, microbes, etc., because God allows them to exist, hence they must be good. Love a germ or microbe, take away all resistance between you and it, and it cannot hurt you, for you then have the Godly Mind, and no microbe or insect can hurt the God-Mind. You may say, they do not hurt my mind, but they cause sickness in my body. Your body is composed of millions of invisible insects contained in the 85% water, and 15% of so-called inorganic salts of which your body is composed, and the reason they give you trouble and sickness, is because you resist them in your mind either consciously or unconsciously. They have a subjective intelligence, and want to be loved instead of condemned or denied. Love your body which is subjective intelligence, and it will reflect love and harmony back to you. Resist your body, and it will resist you. Your body is your wife in one sense, so love it divinely with all your Soul and it will never cause you any trouble. You, a living Soul, marry your body and become one in eternal Life and keep away from the grave.

It has no place for a Soul awakened person of this enlightened age. Still you must love the grave for others sake, for millions believe in it even while resisting it. Jesus said, "Love your enemies." St. Paul calls death an enemy, so we must love death as well as Life, and resist it not, and through that law of non-resistance and Love, we overcome it and express Life. As it has before been stated, Love is Life and is positive, and death is negative, so by the incorporation of the two opposite principles, a third principle of Life is manifested, as the seed always remains in the Father or positive principle.

Plant a cucumber seed, the positive, in the earth, the negative, and you grow a cucumber, a squash seed a squash, and so on.

The effect always comes from the positive principle. So if you want Life and not death, Love death divinely and you will get Life. This is deep Wisdom but it is true. It is perfectly consistent with the Laws of nature. Always keep in mind the two principles and apply the Law, and you will have the key to every problem that confronts you.

But you must make a great sacrifice before you can apply this Law.

You must give up all superstitions, false ideas, and abide strictly by these laws, as it is only by so doing that you can become a Master, and wear the Crown of Life, Health, Happiness, and Harmony. "Many are called but few are chosen." Do you belong among the chosen ones?

THE LIFE PRINCIPLE ITS LAW OF HARMONY

Each individual is playing his own tune of Life, and each have a different conception of the harmonious Life-Principle, which causes a jangle of many discords among mankind. Let us imagine that the whole world is one Grand Piano, and its keyboard represents all of the different varieties of Life, both good and evil, so-called, which are in existence to-day. Now every single individual of the millions of people in the world, have each a different tune to play on that Piano of Life. No two persons play exactly the same tune, for each has his own.

Some persons like a certain rag-time tune, others have each a favorite classic, some enjoy sentimental music, and so on to the end. Now each note on that Piano is valuable, and is essential for some individual to play their tune. If you used only part of the notes on the Piano necessary for your tune, you would not condemn the other notes that you did not use, would you? You would of course know that the others would perhaps be necessary for someone else's tune, no matter whether it be rag-time or classic. The notes can be used for the one, as well as for the other. And would you not say that the other person was crazy if he came to you and said that the notes you used for your tune were no good, but to use his notes instead? You would certainly think that that person was surely insane, and perhaps have him sent to the asylum. But there is absolutely no difference between that person and the way mankind are talking and acting to-day. They are all condemning one another, and trying to play each other's tune, instead of attending to their own business, and playing their own tune.

Each person's desire is a note on the Piano, and each desire or note should be fulfilled non-resistingly, in order to demonstrate the Harmony of Life. One of your desires or notes might be religious work, and mine might be athletics, or sporting, but we should not condemn each other for not using the same notes in our tune of Life. We should live the non-resistant law, and fulfill our desires, for it is only by so doing that we overcome them. Perhaps we hold our finger on some notes or desires longer than others, but that may be also necessary for our tune. But before you can live that Law perfectly and without friction, there is first something for you to do.

First of all you must get Wisdom, whose Light will shine on the great world Piano, where you will be able to see how to strike your notes. The pupil who is learning the principle of music, is restrained by the teacher from striking the wrong notes that do not belong to his tunes. So when we are in ignorance of the great Life-Principle, we must also be restrained from striking the false notes, or those that do not belong to our Soul Self desires. When we have Wisdom and understanding of the Principle of Life, we then always strike the right notes, and unresistingly play our own tune perfectly and harmoniously.

Never allow any person to play your tune, for when you do you sin. The desires that we sow in the human material consciousness, must be reaped in the divine spiritual consciousness, but if we do so before we gain that consciousness of Light, we being in darkness and ignorance, are constantly transgressing the Law which is sin. Wheat cannot be reaped until it comes to the light and ripened, neither can we reap our desires harmoniously, until we come to the Light of Wisdom. God does not fight His nature, neither should we fight ours, but we must have Godly Wisdom and then we live our nature which is Godly, and play our own tune of Life on the World Piano. Let your Soul Self govern you instead of other peoples' ideas, and then you are free to do as you will, and nothing can harm you. A wise man will not condemn those in the dark human consciousness, and desires each to live their own Life as they see it, but he being in Wisdom lives the Christ Life of Love, and by showing a perfect example of a happy, non-condemning, harmonious way of living, draws others unto him, for Love is attractive. Jesus said, "And if I be lifted up, I will draw all men unto me," which spiritually interpreted, means that if he was lifted up to the high absolute consciousness of Love, that Love would attract others to accept him and his teachings, for each individual's real Soul Self ever vibrates with the Truth. Jesus lived the non-resistant law perfectly and played his own tune, looking neither to the right nor to the left, and by so doing he won the Crown of Life. He never allowed any Devil suggestion to switch him out of his path. His God Soul Self governed him, and nothing but that Soul could influence him in any manner. He never argued with his Soul. Whatever desire It had, he fulfilled it at once. Nothing was IT to him only the God within, and His Laws. And that is what we must do. We must not put any special stress on anything, but the Law of Soul, God, and then only do we fulfill the commandment, "Thou shall have no other gods before ME." This ME is the Soul God within each and every one of you. Wipe away all of the cobwebs of the old superstition and error, and this ever present God within you will give you peace, joy, and happiness. Jesus taught the system of co-operation, which is Love in its broadest sense. Co-operation must be established in every branch of Life, industrially as well as spiritually, in order to fully meet the ends of Justice. Now the world is on the competitive, dark side of Life, in which is all the misery, slavery, and oppression, which exists in the world at the present time. When co-operation supplants competition, which it will in the near future as progress is the law, Justice will shine on this earth, and injustice with all its horrors will cease, and mankind will then begin to realize that heaven indeed is in their midst, and it only remained for them to establish it, as they had the power within themselves to do so whenever they became awakened sufficiently to understand the real situation.

Wisdom makes mankind free, but they must exist in ignorance and bondage, until they are ready to receive it. Their very experiences of oppression and misery are good to compel them to progress, for without them they would continue to stay in the shell, and the march of Progress would be delayed. We are on the verge of Liberty and Freedom, and the great tidal wave of Intelligence, when fully expressed, will sweep away all debris which lie in its path, and mankind will then experience equality, justice, freedom, liberty and all the joys which will comprise heaven here on earth.

MORTAL OR CARNAL MIND vs. DIVINE MIND

Whenever we have a false or wrong mind about anything that exists, or don't exist, that is the dark mind of error. It is the opposite of the true Mind and is ignorant of the Truth. It is a negative state of consciousness, but does not change the actual Truth itself. In reality we can never actually know error as a fact, we can only experience a belief that it is a fact. For example, mankind never did know that the earth was flat, for it never was. They only experienced the belief that they knew it, but never did, for the earth was always round, and by believing it to be flat did not flatten it. The truth about it always remained the same. Mortal or carnal mind is the ignorant dark mind of error that mankind are existing in to-day, it is "The veil that is cast over all nations," Isaiah, "but that veil only hides, it does not destroy or change the Truth. It is the night of superstition and sin, the dark side of Life. It has its place as darkness has its place, and serves for the human consciousness, but not for the Christ consciousness, which is the Light of Love and Wisdom.

Paul wrote, "The carnal mind is enmity against God." It is ignorant of the laws of God, therefore always transgressing them which is sin.

You may ask, does God create a mind to sin against Himself?

A sinning mind was never created, it is simply an eternal negation to divine Mind, like darkness is an eternal negation to light; it represents the divine Law of opposites.

The dark mind of Error always exists somewhere as symbolizing the eternal negative principle of God, like darkness is always existing somewhere on this earth.

We should always recognize error as Error, even while knowing the truth as Truth; but to have perfect freedom and happiness, we must not confound Error with Truth, but allow the positive Truth (Divine Mind) to govern us, instead of negative Error (Carnal Mind). But hold no condemnation towards Error (Carnal Mind), for that is sin, and transgresses God's Law of perfect Love. God being all-Wisdom, knows the Truth that the earth is round, for He made it so; and he also knows the opposite Error of belief that it is flat, but is never governed by that Error, or belief, although mankind were at one time. He always holds all Truth and all Error in their proper places in His divine Mind, and is impartial in His Love for each, which we must also do in order to be a full reflection, or perfect image of Him in all His attributes.

There never was a truth without its opposite. The postulate of error always enters in. It is the ignorant carnal mind of mankind that errs and sins, not God.

Man is given free-will like God, but man after having perfect bliss and harmony in heaven, he falls to the other extreme called hell or negativness, the carnal mind. It is law for him to experience both sides for he has free-will, and God is ever Love and allows man to do as he chooses, although God's arm of Righteousness is ever stretched forth to help him back again. God is always Wisdom, and never errs, His Mind is always divine and never carnal, and His Love is so perfect that it is ever shining on the evil and the good, like the sun. It is man and not God, who passes through the darkness and ignorance of the negative, downward cycle of Life. After having started out, the gate is closed, and a flaming sword is placed there, for we cannot go back.

We must swing on down the cycle, and going downward is good for we are progressing round to the top of the cycle back to the God consciousness and heaven. Some day all error and sin will become subjective to Truth and Good, although error will eternally exist as Error, and then we shall see the Light of Love only, "and there shall be no night there." (Revelation). We must always give the darkness its proper place, for "There be many who love darkness rather than Light.

God recognizes both sides of Himself the same as we do, for He is two principles, both positive and negative, so whatever typifies the negative is law. But God's Love for mankind never changes no matter which state they are in, and when man has had enough of hell, he commences to search for heaven, and through earnest seeking, he begins to gain some knowledge of the unchanging Love of God, which in time redeems him through that divine Love, until he finds himself in heaven, the top of the cycle from where he started. Mankind has ever been going to extremes, and will ever continue to do so throughout eternity. You might say that the memory of your past hell would forever keep you from going back again, but don't you know that perfect contentment sometimes palls on us, and we want a change of some kind. But our goal now is heaven whatever may come afterwards. So the mortal, carnal mind is the dark mind which typifies the dark side of Life, but now is the time to come out of that cloud into the sunshine of the divine Mind, in which is all goodness, freedom, and liberty.

We have believed and been taught to regard this dark side as evil, and condemn it, but divine Mind is Love always with no shadow of condemnation, therefore the beam is in our own eye as Jesus said. Evil is turned into good, when you come into the Light of wisdom.

All so-called evil is simply a false sinning sense of Life, a sense that all is not good, causing us to condemn, which in turn causes corruption, stagnation, and death, and obstructs the perfect flow of Love, the River of Life as it is called in Revelation. The divine Mind is always non-resistant, loving, and pure, therefore never condemns or sins, hence the reason it is eternal. A sinning mind causes death, but there can be no death to the divine Mind, for there is no sin there.

We have got to understand the basic proposition that ALL IS GOOD, and understand the reason why it is so, then we view creation from the divine Mind standpoint which is scientific, for God's view-point is correct. You may not be able to grasp all the truths contained in this book at the first reading, for God's ideas are opposite to mankind's ideas, but if you study these laws you will become a divine Lawyer, and will be able to put them into practice. Paul said, "Have that Mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus." He referred to the divine Mind. "Ye must be born again." Jesus. We must be born out of the womb of the carnal, condemning, limited, mortal mind, into the unlimited, non-condemning divine Mind, and then we will find peace, happiness, success, and heaven. But we must be born under the guidance of Science and Wisdom, then our birth will be natural and easy. The New Era Philosophy is the Physician of the new Aerial Age, for mankind must recognize the two principles, or they will never be entirely free from condemnation and sin, and experience that universal Love, which is heaven itself. The commandment is to "Love your neighbor as yourself," but that never can be fulfilled absolutely, until Wisdom is obtained. When you fully comprehend this Wisdom, you will love mankind including enemies, as you never loved them before, because you understand how to love them scientifically. It is impossible to love your so-called enemy perfectly, until you understand the laws that govern you and him. When you do understand, it becomes your joy to do so.

Your enemy is really your best friend, for he is unconsciously testing your strength in Love, and showing you how much of a Christian you are. Therefore look on him as a friend, and be glad of the opportunity to prove your Masterhood in Love and Wisdom.

THE PERSONAL JESUS AND THE IMPERSONAL CHRIST.

According to history there was a man sent into the world from God, who became a redeemer and offered himself a living sacrifice for the sins of mankind. This man was called Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

He worked at the Carpenter's trade, and at the age of thirty years, he commenced to preach about God and His Kingdom which is called the Gospel. As he preached and taught the Law of God, he demonstrated that Law with signs following. The sinner was converted, the sick were made well, and the dead were raised into life. Wherever he taught he practiced what he taught and never failed according to his history.

Now from that history of Jesus the Christ, a great many different religions and conceptions have come into existence, each with a different interpretation of him and his teachings. Some have denied that such a man ever existed. Some recent day investigators say that they can prove that he was a myth, and only existed in the imaginations of the men who wrote the New Testament. Some claim he was God Himself, others believe he was the Son of God. Anyone who has studied the New Testament knows that his teachings taken in the concrete, was love for God and man, friend and enemy alike. He also taught that the Kingdom of God was within mankind, and not afar off. Now what do we see in this teaching? Do we not see an absolutely new idea? Moses taught, "An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth." Other Biblical characters declared heaven to be a location in some far off place.

But this man said, "Love your enemies," and "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand," that is, within reach. That doctrine was certainly different from the old thought, that you must love your friend and hate your enemy, and that heaven was in the sky somewhere. Now whoever denies that a man called Jesus ever lived, will have to admit that the idea itself was taught by some human being, whatever name they called him. His name might be James, John, or any of the other old Biblical names, but that has nothing whatever to do with the idea or Law that was taught. When we learn mathematics we do not put any special stress on the teacher's name, what we want is to understand the law that governs mathematics, and the teacher's name is immaterial to us. The law of mathematics is universal and separate from the teacher, so also is the divine Law of God universal and separate from Jesus or whatever personality who taught it. Mankind to a large degree have been looking to the personality of Jesus, instead of to the Law or Christ which he taught and demonstrated. Jesus was a human being like us, he had ears, eyes, nose, mouth, etc., the same as we have, but Christ was the Love idea which he taught and consistently lived in his daily life. Jesus made the Christ his Life, which we must do in order to follow him consistently and practically. We now have established the fact that there was some person in history who taught that idea of impartial Love, and we will call that person Jesus. He said, "If ye love me keep my commandments," and "There is none good but one, that is God," always pointing to God and his Law, instead of to his own personality. He also said, "I can of my own self do nothing," implying that God did the work, and he was only an instrument for that Power to work through. He always held himself negative to God, and never said that he was God Himself. Some good people gain that idea from his statement, "I and my Father are one," but he meant that he was one with God, as the light is one with the sun, a drop of water one with the ocean, an arm one with the body, etc. He stated that he was the Son of God. We are all sons of God as the Christ is within each one of us, but as yet we have not developed to where he can demonstrate the Christ as Jesus did. The wise men of the East were looking for a man-child to be born under certain planetary conditions, according to the ancient, relative science of Astrology, and is spoken of in the Bible five times, which conditions would bring forth a perfect child.

They were fully familiar with the planetary suggestions, and when Jesus was born under those conditions, and his mother being the purest of women, they at once knew he was the long looked for Savior, and brought him gifts and worshiped him. And he fully justified that name according to history. Even at the age of twelve, he was found in the Temple teaching the so-called wise men of that age. He was an old Soul in spiritual evolution and development, hence he was better able to demonstrate God's power than other men. He had a higher understanding of the Law so was able to apply it, like a musician who has a high understanding of the law of music, is better able to apply it than one who has not. But he was not supernatural as many believe. All things are supernatural to an ignorant mind, but when understood appear perfectly natural. He said, "He that believeth on me shall do the things that I do, and even greater things shall he do," so if he was supernatural, we can become supernatural also. He would not have made that promise if he had not known that we have the same power within us that he had, only waiting to be developed and expressed. The Bible has been translated so many times that perhaps his exact sayings are not correctly recorded, but the fundamental idea is there and shines through all the mistakes. He passed through hell here on earth, but he lived the non-resistant law perfectly, and even went through the change of death with perfect Love in his heart for all mankind including all enemies, and through that non-resistance and Love he proved there was no death. He could have overcome his enemies with his power and averted death if he had chosen, but he had the courage to allow them to crucify him in order to make his greatest demonstration. Jesus set us a perfect example to live by, and all may gain freedom by understanding his teachings in their true meaning, and applying them in every day life as he did. Each person has to work out his own salvation, no one can do it for him, not even Jesus. We should ever love and respect him as mankind's greatest Savior, for in three and one half years of active work, he left an immortal record.

A true idea will never die, it may be obscured for awhile by wrong ideas and superstition, but will sooner or later burst forth in all its splendor, like the sun through the clouds. Jesus is indeed a personal Savior to all those who understand and accept the Christ Law that he taught, and live it absolutely in the daily life, for they will then experience heaven here and now, as well as hereafter.

THE LAWS OF THE JEW, GENTILE AND ETHIOPIAN.

The three classes of people who take an active part in the affairs of this world, are the Jew or Hebrew, the Gentile, and the Ethiopian, or colored race. Each race are under different laws, and it is impossible for either one to change places and have good results. The mixing of these laws is one of the chief reasons why there is enmity between the three classes to-day. There should be perfect harmony between them, and there would be if each understood the law they are under. To make the laws of each clear, we will take for illustration any human being. There are three distinct principles or parts to him, head, stomach, and limbs. The head is the positive principle, it does the thinking, and is the executive part of the body. The stomach is the center principle, and receives the food first, which after digesting gives strength to the whole body, but always goes to the head first. Then comes the arms and hands, legs and feet which are the negative or serving principle. Now this human body symbolizes the three classes, the Jew typifies the head or positive, the Gentile the stomach or center, and the Ethiopian or colored race, the legs and feet, the negative or serving principle. The arms and hands symbolize the Mulatto race, which are part black and part white, and are closer connected with the stomach, or Gentiles. Each part is under a different law. The legs and feet cannot be the stomach, or head, neither can the stomach be the head or feet, each has a different law to fulfil. So it is with each class of people. Neither can be the other, or fulfil each other's laws. The center or stomach is the giving or supplying part, and is under the law to give strength to the body.

Everything comes from the center. The Jews which are the head, receive their supplies from the Gentiles, the center. Likewise the Ethiopians, the negative, or legs and feet, and the Mulattos, the arms and hands, depend on the Gentiles, the center, for their sustenance.

The Jews have great business ability, and are always managing a business of their own, but their customers are mostly Gentiles. The Ethiopian as a rule never cares to be any other than what he is, a servant. Ninety-nine colored people out of a hundred will tell you that they had rather serve a good master than to do business for themselves. So we can see that Noah was wise when he said, "The sons of Ham shall be the servants of servants." The center or Gentile serves the head, and gives strength to the arms and hands, legs and feet, but the legs and feet, or Ethiopian, is the extreme negative, and serves the whole body, both head and center, Jews and Gentiles. The head or Jew, is the extreme positive, the legs and feet, or Ethiopian the extreme negative. He is indeed the servant of servants, but just as essential as the others, for the body would be handicapped without the legs and feet to serve it. The reason why the Jews, the head, could not receive Jesus Christ, was because he was a Jew, the head, and the head cannot receive strength from the head, it must go to the center, the Gentiles. The Gentiles, the center, could receive from the Jew, Jesus the head, it being law for the stomach, or center, to receive instructions from the head, the executive. The Gentile, the stomach, after receiving the Law from Jesus, the head, began at once to digest that Law, and now, after two thousand years, it has become digested, and is ready to give the strength of that Law back to the head, the Jew, and also to the legs and feet, arms and hands, the Ethiopian and Mulatto. Many are now ready to accept that Law, and its strength, and when received and applied will bring peace and harmony on earth. We can see how the law has been working in the past, and now the time is at hand for each race to understand their own laws and fulfil them. There will never be perfect harmony between the classes until the laws are understood and applied.

The Ethiopian, Chinese, etc., are the female races, for they typify the negatives. The Jew, Gentile, etc., are the male races, and they typify the positive. Thus we see the two principles, positive and negative, throughout the whole world, and it becomes absolutely necessary that mankind should understand the laws and fulfil them, and when fulfilled, all nationalities will walk hand in hand, each in their own place.

Everything has its place, and we must find out where our place is and live in it. As the situation is to-day, the whole world is in a badly twisted shape, without knowing how to straighten itself out.

All mankind are ignorant of the laws, consequently each are trying to fill someone else's place, but it can't be done for it is not law.

Each must fill his own. We see the positive and negative working in the heavens in perfect harmony. The sun is positive, and the revolving planets, including the moon, are negative to it, and each are in its place fulfilling the law in perfect harmony. The moon symbolizes the Mother principle of God, for it is negative and reflects the light of the positive sun, the symbol of the Father principle of God.

Some day, and it is not far distant, mankind will understand and accept these laws and apply them scientifically, for they must be fulfilled before we can step higher on the ladder of Life. The white man should love the Ethiopian, for he is under the law to serve him, in the present stage of progress. And the Ethiopian should love the white man, and would if the white man had Wisdom and applied it practically.

He should teach his servant the law, and treat him humanely and love him as a servant, and the servant must understand his place, and love his master who provides for him. Of course the laws of master and servant is applicable only until we reach the absolute consciousness or heaven, and then all races become servants to God only, and all will be equal. There will be no high or low, great or small, all will be one universal family, and God will be the Father and Mother.

In that perfect consciousness of Wisdom and Intelligence, there will be no marrying or giving in marriage, for all will be living divine Souls moving in perfect harmony, and subject to their Creator only.

But before that comes to pass all the lesser laws must be fulfilled first, for each step of the ladder must be taken in succession before we can reach the top. We cannot jump from one rung to the other on this ladder, they are too far apart. When we climb a mountain each step must be taken, and so it is with God's divine plan. Let us be wise and understand His Laws and apply them in the proper manner as we progress in the cycle of Life. Look to the Law only and have no other gods, even if you have to forsake all else, for it is only by so doing that you can demonstrate Life, Health, Happiness, Joy, and Peace, here and now. God and His Law are one, so if you love His Law with all your mind, strength, and soul, you are then loving God, and your reward will be great.

LIFE AND DEATH

Much has been said about the immortality of Life, whether we really do live again after death. Many have said that they have had substantial proof that Life does exist after death, while others claim that death is the last of us. Now let us look at this question from the standpoint of our premise. The trees and grass appear to die in the Fall of the year, but they re-manifest in the Spring. We know absolutely that we live now because we experience it, but none of us know absolutely that we die, for none of us have experienced it on this plane of Life. We know that mankind appears to die, but do they any more than the grass and trees? Admitting the two opposite principles of our premise, would not any intelligent person assume Life as the positive, and Death as the negative?

I think they would. That being settled, we must also admit that Life being positive, it must have the most power, must rule or govern. And Death being negative cannot have power over Life the positive, or destroy it. Viewing Death from this which is logical from our undeniable premise, we see it only as the dark side or shadow, but Life being positive Light, like the sun, lives on eternally in its cycle.

Life is positive, Death is negative, like light and darkness, so we can clearly understand that man and woman never die, but lives on after passing through the shadow of Death. It is simply a change of the planes of consciousness, like passing from one room to another and closing the door. Man has passed through many changes in the past which he is not conscious of now, and will pass through many more in the future, until he gains the perfect pure consciousness which will be heaven to him whenever and wherever he developes it into expression, and then there will be no Death. The reason we see Death now is because mankind are on the Dark, negative, downward side of Life which includes all negativeness, and will be overcome only when we step out into the Light, positive, upward side of Life which includes all positiveness.

Mankind dies because the body becomes so corrupt through the sinning negative thoughts which are imposed upon it, that the pure sinless Soul has to seek a change, and so leaves the corrupt shell behind.

But the positive Soul always has a negative body, which is called by some the Astral body, which is much brighter and finer than the other.

The old body that is left behind is like the old skin peeling off the live body, which brings to view the inner skin fresh and clean.

The Soul principle is changeless, but the individual Soul in man and woman established in the center of the body, which is one with the Soul principle, is ever unfolding itself. It is like mankind, ever perpetuating itself as an unchanging principle, but individual man and woman on the dark side, are ever changing and giving place to other generations. Life or Soul never dies, it only changes its position, and is constantly passing on like the river flowing toward the ocean. Everything is in motion, even the rocks and mountains are in perpetual vibration. The human body is constantly throwing off old refuse and building new tissues, and now the latest scientists find that each person has an entirely new body every two years. The insects thrive on the refuse of the body, so love that for their sakes.

We see that everything is good and for a purpose, and has its place in the great economy of Nature. When we come into the Light of Wisdom, we fulfill our desires which are sown in the dark carnal consciousness, uncondemningly. They are sown in darkness, and reaped in the Light, like wheat that is sown in the darkness of the earth, but after it has sprouted up into the light and matured, it is reaped. The one aim and goal of every man and woman should be to get Wisdom and understanding, for then only will they be ready to reap what they have sown.

When Wisdom and Love are injected into the flesh, it will purify and transfigure it. Then you will not have to pass through the dark valley of the shadow of death, for the body will then be redeemed through pure Love and Wisdom, and for you, Death, the negative, will be overcome by Life the positive. Many claim they love death for they think heaven is on the other side, still when they are sick and dying, they will do all in their power to keep from going there. That is another inconsistency of the dark side people. To those people who believe they love death, we say that we love it also for their sake, although we love it in a different manner from them. In Wisdom we know that it is law for us to love the negative as well as the positive, so we love it from that standpoint, knowing that by so doing we are fulfilling God's Law. By not resisting death in thought, word, or deed, we overcome it. Jesus said, "I come to fulfil the law," and that was the law of non-resistance. He knew that resistance was the cause of all the bitterness and hate in the world including death, and that only through Love alone could he become a Master, and he gave abundant proof that he was right. He had developed so far in spiritual evolution, that he was not subject to superstition and condemnation, and consequently his Soul Love found full expression and directed him in doing good to all.

All mankind must follow him, that is, understand the Law he taught and practice it, either here or hereafter. Dying will not usher us into heaven or harmony, for death is called an enemy, and is to be overcome with Life. The sooner we start on the straight and narrow path, the sooner we will reach the goal. Progress is the law, and through spiritual evolution, men and women become ready for the Christ consciousness.

Some are in the live cycle and are ready for it now, and many are not. Those that are not are in the dead cycle and will have to pass on. But sometime the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea, as the Bible states. All must awaken to the Law of Life, and gain the spiritual consciousness of the new heaven and new earth, which will be seen when the new birth takes place in each individual. Of that hour knoweth no man, but the Father.

SOUL PRAYER

Now that we have some understanding of the eternal Law of God, whose Law is unchanging divine Love, we are able to gain a right conception of the nature of actual prayer. We can plainly see that praying to a God of Wisdom who always does right, and asking him to do this and that, is presumptuous on our part, for man's wisdom does not warrant him in advising the all-wise God, or asking for favors, for if He is Wisdom, He will know and do what is wise at all times. Asking for personal favors implies a changeable God, which our reason tells us can't be true. Jesus's prayers were more of an affirmation than a petition.

He said that we must believe we have that of which we ask, when we ask. If we go back to the creation of man, we remember that the fact has been established that he was the effect or real image of God, which includes all that God is. Hence it logically follows that all mankind are heirs to God and His infinite spiritual estate, and it only remains for mankind to assert their claims, and take possession as His children. We are a law unto ourselves. How important then that we awaken to the consciousness of God's eternal, unchangeable Law, and apply it scientifically. Would it not be foolish for us to sit before a piano and pray to the law of music to play the piano for us?

The law is already established, and it is for us to understand and demonstrate harmoniously. We must work out our own salvation according to God's Law. But remember we have no criticism for the good people who pray otherwise, for we know that all prayer gives comfort and consolation to those who ask in sincerity and honesty, with unselfish motives, and they will also reap their reward. Soul prayer is the heart's desire to be good, a desire to understand God's will, and keep His commandments. That constant desire is unceasing prayer.

Jesus prayed intelligently. He understood God's Law, and was always ready at a moment's notice to apply it, for it was first and foremost in his mind. He said, "Not my will but thine be done," showing that he always endeavored to allow God's will or Law to govern him, instead of his own personal will. It is recorded that he went alone by himself to pray. He had to be alone at times in order to commune with his Soul Self or God, and gain inspiration to keep on with his ministry, for the crowds must have wearied him greatly. Real prayer is affirming the Law, and a burning desire to be and do good, and it does not necessarily have to be expressed audibly, for God knows the desires of the Soul which is God, and a good desire never goes unrewarded.

We should never resist our Soul desires but allow them to have full sway, and then we are in absolute harmony with God, and the God-power within us is then ready to use for the betterment of mankind. But remember we must have our minds purified by first removing all adulterous thoughts, negative ideas, superstition, etc., which requires time and patience for some people according to the mental state they are in.

When that is accomplished the positive Soul Self or God is allowed full expression, which manifests itself in peace, harmony, happiness, joy, success, and health, outwardly. Health, happiness, and success is your birth-right dear Soul brother and sister, and you may have them right now, if you are in that state of consciousness where you are able to perceive the two principles in their infinite broadness, and apply God Almighty's eternal Law of impartial, divine Love.

HEALING

There are various methods for healing the sick, and they are all offsprings of the underlying principle of God, good. The physicians have played one of the most prominent parts of Life, in relieving distressed humanity through the use of drugs, and their different suggestions. All Matter the negative principle of God, has no power to act of its own accord without the mental suggestion imposed upon it, and that must be understood in its broad sense. Matter is a perfect servant of Intelligence and is always obedient to its will, and we must love a perfect servant. But the drug suggestions are now on the wane, have fulfilled its purpose, and self spiritual suggestions of Intelligent Love are now coming into vogue. Thus we see all kinds of mental therapeutics in the world to-day, which are developing enormously, and they are all good in their place, or God would not permit their existence. Hypnotism has been of great benefit to many, although it has been misused in many instances, which of course is not in perfect harmony with the Science of Love. The Psychology of Love as Jesus taught it could not be perverted and used for any destructive negative purpose, for if so used it would not be Love, which is always constructive and positive.

The power of the practitioner would soon be lost altogether, if it was used for any other than good motives. We must be consistent with God's Law or we must pay the penalty. The Law is absolutely impartial, and he who sins against it must certainly suffer for it in some form, for sin always causes suffering. Still, those who transgress the Law do so either in ignorance or wilfulness, which is proof that they are not hatched out of the shell of the dark, carnal, human consciousness, so we must not condemn them, but with patience wait until they are ready to be born from darkness into Light. Wrong motives involves defeat, and is in harmony with the negative people, destruction; right motives insure success, and is in harmony with the positive people, construction. Therefore those who are on the positive side must think and act consistently, or their last state shall be worse than the first. Jesus was consistent, he destroyed sickness and disease through Love, and we must use that same Power to do likewise, if we wish to be a practical Christian. We cannot deny and love at the same time, therefore we must Love at all times. In order to be in harmony with the body, and have it manifest harmony continuously, you must Love it divinely always, and never condemn or deny it. When you allow your Soul Love to flow through your body like the blood in the veins, you will have a perfect circulation of Love, and then there can be no stagnation, corruption, sickness, disease, or any of the other illnesses which is caused by the poor circulation of Love.

The central Soul must be allowed to radiate to all parts of the body in order to have perfect health and harmony. To be a perfect Soul Physician like Jesus, you must irradicate all condemnation from your mind, and allow the Soul Love within you to radiate continuously to all persons, and when they ask for help they will receive, for you are always acknowledging them, and it only remains for them to acknowledge you, which when done brings about an incorporation of Love, that manifests health for them in the body. Distance is no objection to a cure. Divine Love is infinite, ever present, everywhere.

Let any person on the face of the globe, or elsewhere, send you their good-will and love, they will be healed instantaneously providing you have eliminated all condemnation from your consciousness. You are positive, and know the Law, while they are negative to you, therefore when they ask conscientiously they receive that which they ask. It is the simple law of giving and receiving, demonstrating the two principles, and true brotherhood and sisterhood. Ofttimes children are cured through the parents. The child is negative to his parents, and the parents are negative to you, therefore when they ask for help for their child, they receive from you, and the child being in oneness in a degree with its parents and negative to them, it receives the blessing, as the positive Soul of the child as well as the parents, ever wills for its negative body to be harmonious. We read of Jesus curing a servant through his master at a distance. The centurion came to Jesus and asked for help for his servant, which was received that self same hour. If the consciousness of Jesus had not been pure and non-condemning, the centurion would have asked in vain, unless his perfect faith in Jesus would perhaps have effected a cure. Faith is a great factor of the human mind, but faith with understanding is practical Wisdom, whereby we know the "modus operandi," or how the work is done. A demonstrable, practical faith is one of absolute spiritual understanding.

HEALING FORMULAS

Either of these three Formulas, which, if you can realize in your Soul Self and apply, will make you well.

(NUMBER 1.) "The clay cannot reply to the potter." That old saying also applies to mankind. Become conscious of the fact that YOU are the Potter, and your body is the clay, therefore your body cannot reply to you unless you give it authority in your consciousness, and become negative to it, when it should be negative to you. Become positive over your body and assert your dominion, as it was given you in the beginning, and understand that it was made to be your servant, not your master, therefore Love it as a servant together with the disease, which also symbolizes the servant principle, divinely and positively, and your body will manifest that Love which is harmony.

Realize this Truth in your deep spiritual Soul Self.

(NUMBER 2.) The perfect good God made me perfect and good like Himself, because I am His own image and likeness, therefore He is forever loving and blessing me. I am absolutely one with Him in Power, Health, Happiness, and Love, for He is in me, and through me every moment, therefore I am Health, for it is His Law and Will that I should be perfect, healthy, and happy, if I so desire. That being God's Will for me to have what I desire, I will desire and manifest that Will now, I AM PERFECT, I AM HEALTH, I AM HAPPY.

Repeat this conscientiously until you feel your Soul Love stirring in your body, and then keep on, until it circulates to all parts of the body, which if diseased will be made perfectly whole and harmonious.

(NUMBER 3.) God is infinite Intelligence, Matter, and Love, which is the Law. I am one with Him in Intelligence, Matter, and Love, as I am His own image and likeness. I am one with the Law, Love, therefore I am Love, as I am the image of Love. I Love the Law which is God, I Love my Intelligence which is God, I Love my Body which is God, for "God is all in all." I Love the whole universe which is God manifested, and I Love all things that are contained therein, as God does. My Body is a part of God, therefore I Love it with my whole being, for I see Him face to face, Intelligence, Matter, and their Law of Unity. I and my Body are in perfect harmony. It loves me because I Love

It, therefore we are one. I live, move, and have my being in God, hence I am surrounded by perfect Health, Happiness, Joy, and Harmony, which is manifesting in and through me, and I will now experience them THIS MOMENT.

CONCLUSION

I have strived, my dear reader, to explain these spiritual, natural Laws in the clearest manner possible, in the most simple language, so with very little study you may be able to grasp, and apply them immediately. I started with the fundamental premise, which I think you will be willing to acknowledge, and from that premise I have drawn every conclusion logically and consistently. The Laws which govern are in perfect harmony with the whole. They are Laws which were formulated by the divine Intelligent Mind, the positive principle of our God, which when mankind gain the perfect understanding of, will free them from every bondage, both physically and mentally. I have not tried to embellish or elaborate the simple Truth in any way, but have given it just as it has come to me in different channels, together with my own spiritual understanding and intelligence. Those of the first or dead cycle will not accept these principles, but will put this book aside as worthless. Many of those in the second cycle, those who have high aspirations once, while those of the live or last cycle, will greedily devour these Truths and ideals, will accept them as true, and will come under the Law and commence to work out their salvation at and come at once into the Kingdom of Harmony here on earth. It all depends on the state of development you are in, dear reader. With the sincerest hope that you are in the last and live cycle, and are ready to put on immortality, I will leave you to be guided, as I trust and hope, by your own real Godly Soul Intelligence.
